WHAT DO YOU WANT?

Something phenomenal happens in our individual lives when we connect with others to make community dreams a reality. Momentum builds, overflows and spreads to everyone involved. It's truly amazing! At Impact, we've all seen it happen time and time again. Your performance in school improves because your family is better supported. You can handle stuff that stresses you out because people who care about you are praying with you and helping in ways that matter.

WHAT DO YOU WANT?

It is phenomenal; yet, it is not magic. It's about connection – not what you can get for yourself.

When we wanted a fresh, lit approach to living out God's call on our lives, we connected with a handful of other people who were feeling restless also. Now over 2,300 people connect weekly via Impact Church to pursue and build opportunities to smash the status quo for ourselves and for our communities. We seek the kind of change that impacts our whole beings, change that has never happened before – spiritual, emotional, educational, economic, social and physical.

Doing Church Differently™ has never been about church. It's always been about YOU – ALL of us – and what we want. Our desires are rooted in why God created us. What did we come here to do? What do you want? What change will you make in this world?

As young people growing up in our hometowns, we knew of God's call early, and we weren't always sure of how we could become all that God was showing to us. But we dared to take a few steps forward and soon others joined us and before we knew it, we'd achieved another goal. Time after time, God continues to demonstrate God's faithfulness in our lives and in the lives of all who are connected to Impact. This Change Makes It Possible adventure will be no different than any of our other quests.

Pursuing and building our individual and collective goals is a collaborative venture. At Impact, we believe that we're all in this together. We get together. We worship and serve together. We achieve – together. Collaboration means that we make room for more. We never say no because we know that with God, more is always possible and remarkable always awaits.

WILL YOU JOIN US?

Catching up to remarkable!

Pastor Olu & Pastor Candice

We do church differently so that YOU can LIVE differently

— REMARKABLY —

beyond anyone's imagination of what's possible.

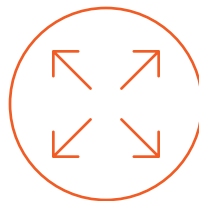

What's Around You Works with You

Impact's environment cooperates with your dreams by not just providing a space to which you may come, we make room for you to hear the whispers of God's heart to yours. Your dreams become reality, supported by your faith and coming to life by our actions and relationships as a community. When we pursue and build the remarkable, our rooms will protect and encourage the most vulnerable and frightened among us.

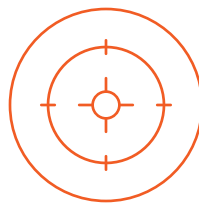

Being Responsible with the Goods

Facts are that we are just sitting on 50,000 undeveloped square feet of what God has given to us. And we know that we need to invest more in people and spaces for spiritual development. When we do these things, we will receive one of the greatest returns on our investment as a faith community. Beyond that, key to Impact's future is our ability to serve families. Every week we place adults in overflow and turn away children from Imcredibles and Impact Kidz because we simply do not have enough room. Continuing to do this means we not only risk losing families as attendees, but we will not be able to continue to attract new families to Impact. So, we're also losing opportunities to share the love of Christ with them.

Stretching the Ministry

Did you know that the 2014 income per person in East Point was $19,076? How can someone live remarkably with this income? Exactly. Knowing these kinds of struggles makes Impact want to expand our ministry, multiplying what we do on our campuses with the rest of the world. We literally can give people what they need and create opportunities that will transform their futures. Then all of us will live remarkably, revitalizing our communities.

The Center of Everything, Every Day

By creating access to every inch of our campuses for the support and development of community needs, we are making the most of what God has already provided. We become efficient custodians of our resources. Impact Church is determined not to waste one bit of God's favor. Not only do these properties provide the expected functions of a church, but they are also key community assets, locations around which God's people from all walks of life may get together to connect, create and act.

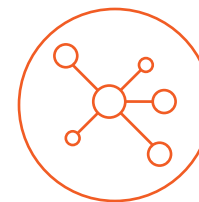

Essentially Different

Pastor Olu often reminds us that there are far too many churches for us simply to be another church. His words have always inspired us to be more than stuck within four walls and a steeple. For this reason, over the last 10 years throughout our networks, we have helped lead the way in improving relationships with other faith and non-faith-based communities. We know that we can shape more change with all of our resources. Maximum Impact's unique lifestyle can influence even more change with our Change Makes It Possible adventure

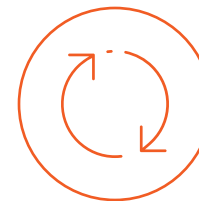

Live, Work and Play

Salvation for every part of you (body, mind and soul) has always been a cornerstone of the Impact DNA. Your soul is important, but we're also concerned about your emotional, mental and physical health. We are concerned about whether you achieve your dreams. More than a place to worship and serve, we have created room for all people to live, work and play. Providing this kind of practical and exciting space for our community creates a platform for individuals to reach new heights. As we nurture each other, we will help sustain connections for generations after you.

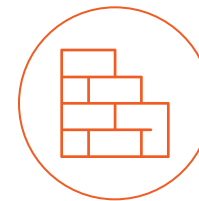

Connect

From personal hygiene resources for our neighbors in need to incubators for emerging entrepreneurs, Impact intends to fulfill its pledge of being deeply engaged with the East Point and Greater Atlanta communities. We are committed to joining in service at various points on the spectrum of need, to connecting in relevant and tangible ways, and to igniting the processes that help all of us move forward along pathways of progress. Supporting the dignity of each human being along with the aspirations of the dreamers among us, Impact acts daily as the hands, feet and heart of Christ.

Pursue

Ten years in, Impact continues to repeat consistently and successfully how we know to do church differently. Over and over and over again, we redefine ministry by making everything we do relevant in fresh and exciting ways. We encourage your presence with sincere, uncompromising hospitality. Maximum Impact's unboxed lifestyle makes us a "soulcial" community, one that is complete and integrated, addressing all parts of our lives. We understand that we are not successful on our own, that we are connected to a legacy which we are intentional about passing to you, the next generation. Part of God's vision for Impact is to lead the way in developing creative ideas and plans that result in impact that we can measure and that makes a real difference. Multiplying in one location is not enough; we pursue repetition in any community that desires to do church differently.

Build

Our Change Makes It Possible adventure will help increase our total seating to 2,300 for an assortment of worship styles and community special events. Impact will continue to invest in being a church with more than one campus, strengthening Impact on Main's presence in the community and planting a third location. We will also expand Imcredibles, Impact Kiz and your youth spaces to accommodate not only more students, but also to give you access to more creative and interactive experiences that will support your educational and personal goals. What an opportunity to influence Maximum Impact lives, preparing you for remarkable futures on fleek!

SMASHING THE STATUS QUO

The story of Impact Church begins with Pastor Olu's vision of a place where people of all backgrounds can come simply to be and connect with others without judgment. Our faces are the ones he saw the day that he peered through the window of Brown Middle School. Along with other attendees who founded Impact, Pastor Olu dared to believe God for the impossible, time and time again.

We developed core values of service, prayer, honesty, community, compassion and economic development. Impact became a place committed to building relationships before membership, to giving 10% of its revenue to other nonprofits, and to insisting on less strict operating processes. Within our first year we added a second worship experience.

As God continues to bless Impact with atypical growth (#56 of 2016's 100 fastest growing churches in the United States, Outreach Magazine), we continue to meet God as God calls us to more experiences, a larger facility, more campuses, a greater impact. Today, we come together, worship and serve from two sites in East Point, GA (just north of our airport) – Impact on Sylvan (IOS) and Impact on Main (IOM).

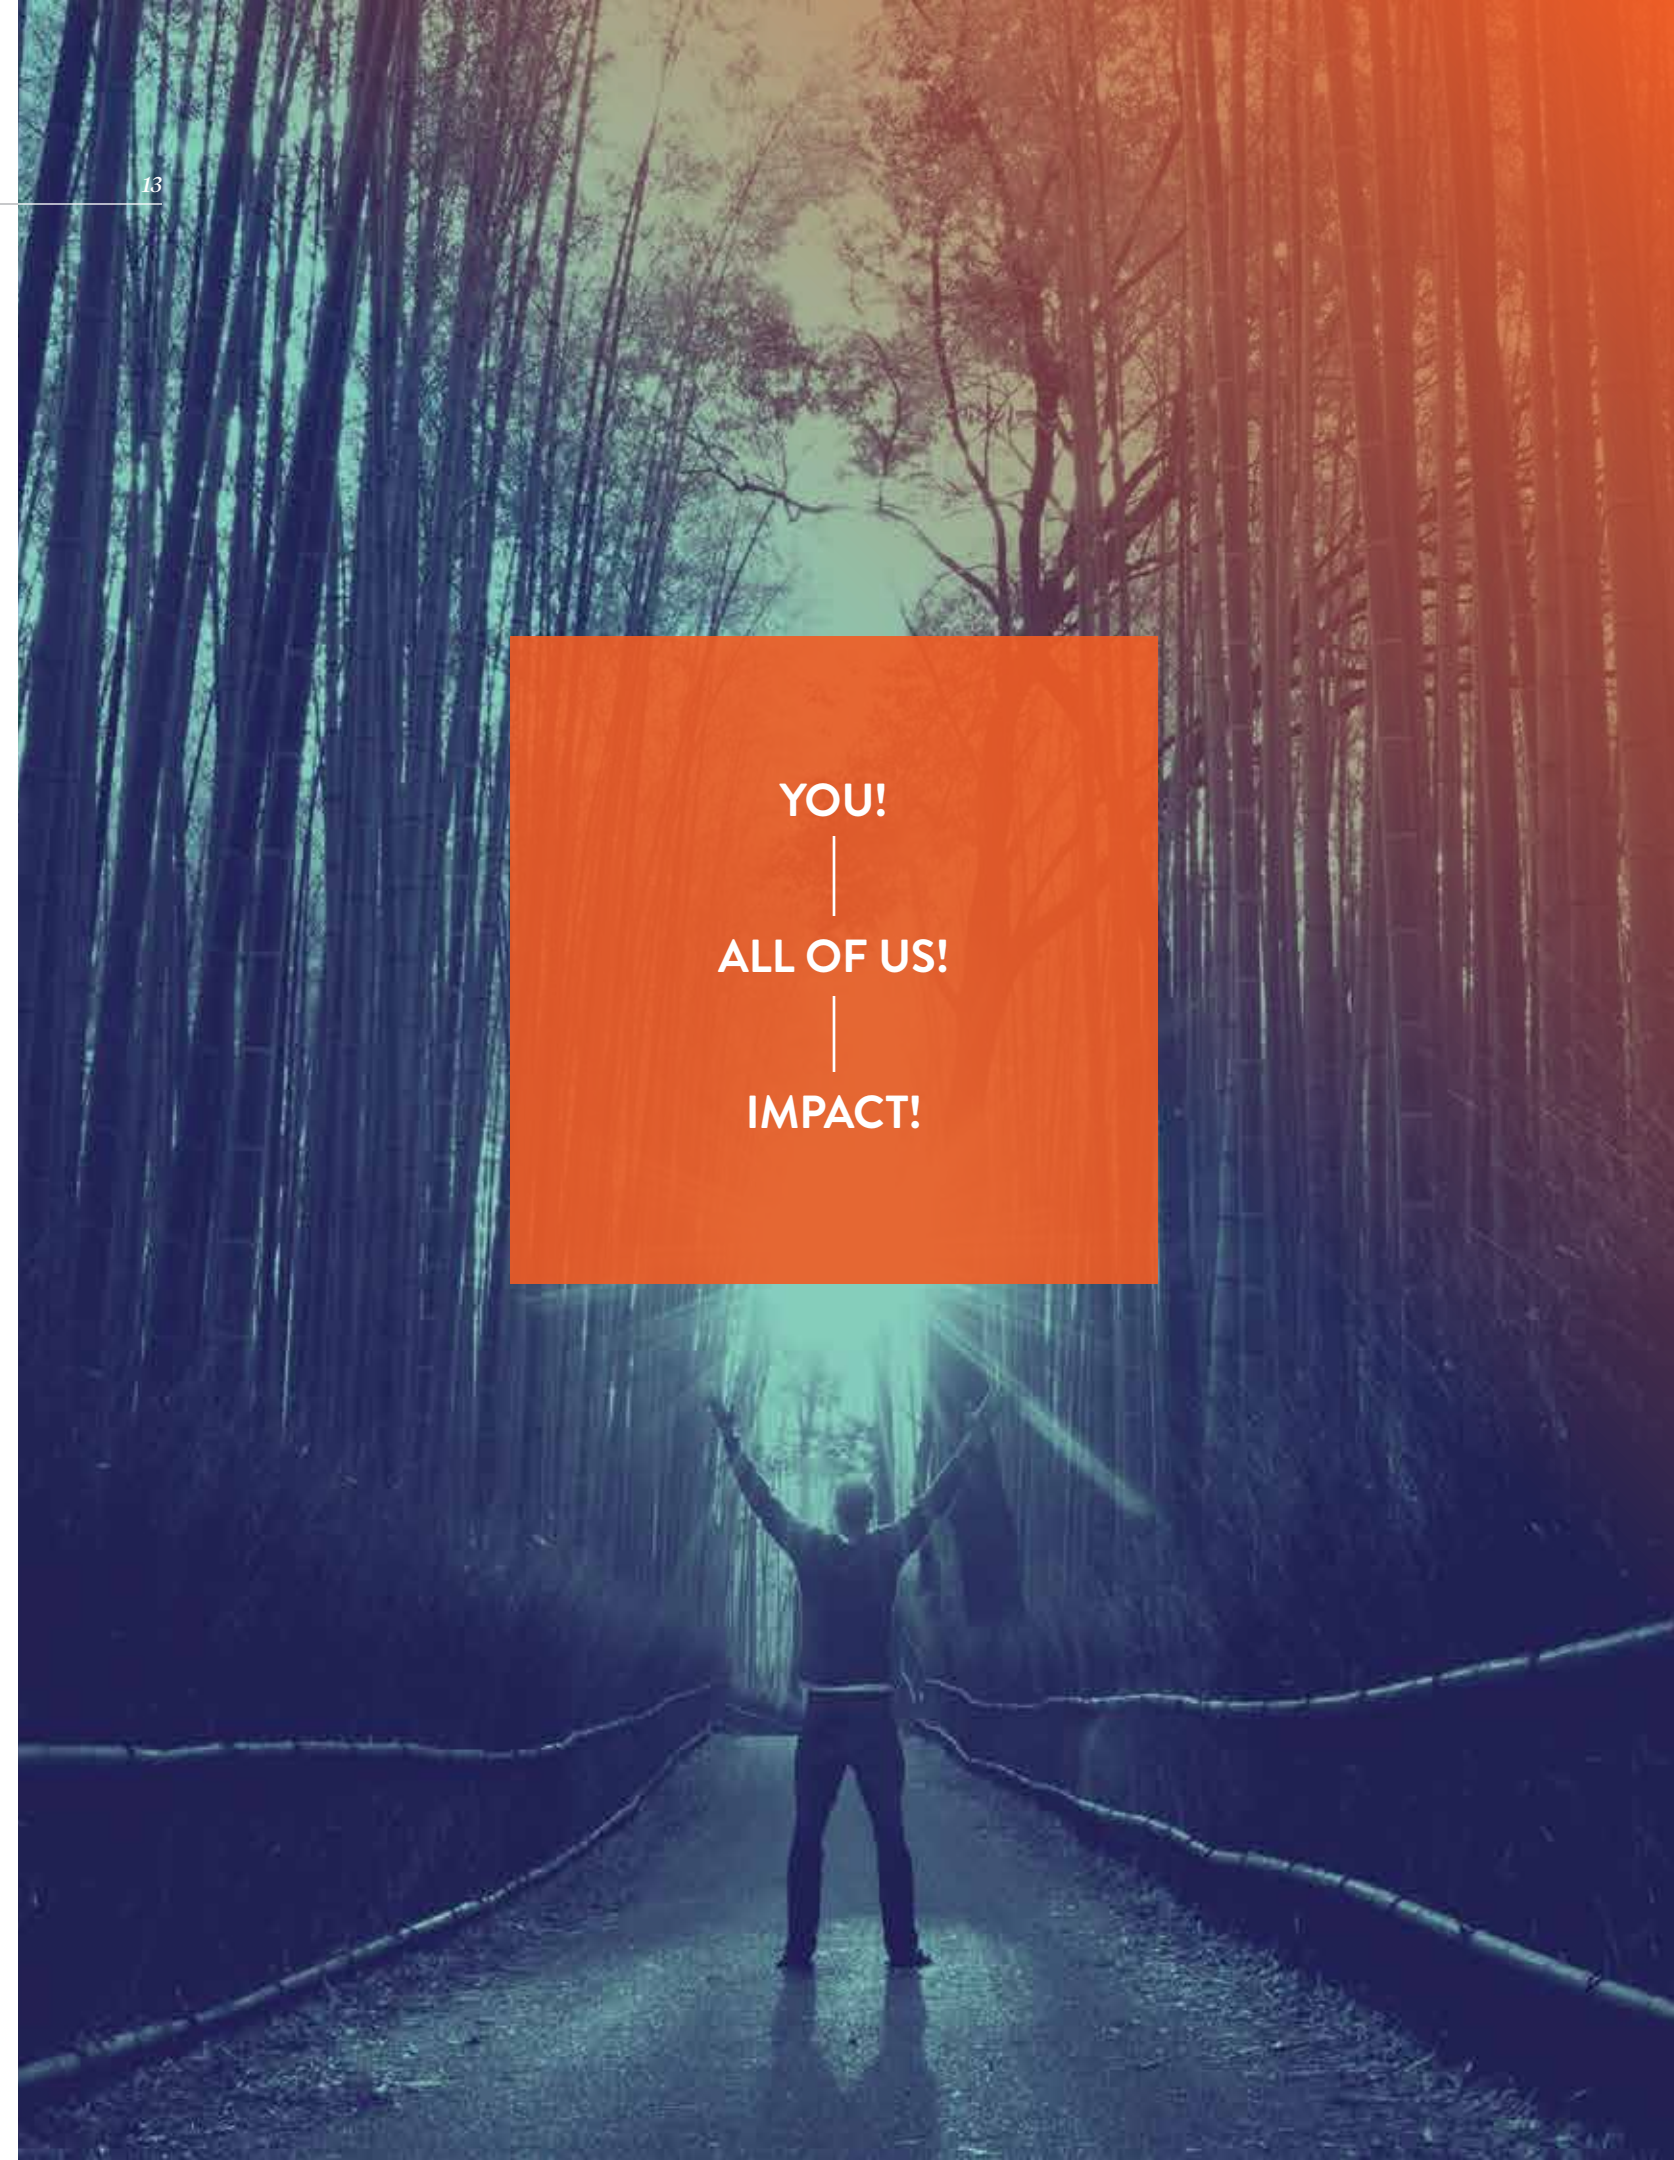

IOS has four worship experiences (often with people in overflow) while 50,000 sq. ft. of this campus remains undeveloped. We are not satisfied with this situation; it must change. Since in-person worship attendance has grown from approximately 1,000 in 2008 to over 2,300 in 2016 (and online attendance almost doubling), we have to be ready for God to blow up attendance yet again. IOM, near the East Point MARTA station, is key to Impact's mission to the community and to Change Makes It Possible. IOM cares for the neighborhood by providing water, referrals to social service agencies and prayer. That campus also serves hot soup to our neighbors in need during the holidays and hosts Family Fun Nights that include food, movies and games. Worship at IOM is growing as well, requiring a second experience in 2017.

Providing 300 children/week (for 10 weeks) from lower income households with summer lunches, transporting 589 college students/week to worship (fall semester), and hosting more than 3,500 children, youth and adults for an unbelievably fun Harvest Fest, is simply not enough. With our Change Makes It Possible adventure we will be able to offer more support and needed change for the 25,000 families within the 3-9 mile radius of Impact:

- 24/7 access to a safe, supportive environment
- Tutoring
- Business incubation resources
- Community centers addressing urban decay, high crime rates, unemployment and other highly visible social threats in and around East Point

Tomorrow, because of Change Makes It Possible, Impact Church will continue to do church differently by living outside of our campuses. We will continue to add locations that make sense for their immediate communities. As we do this, we will shift from simply commuting to East Point for worship to being fully invested in this neighborhood. Our investment will produce consistent, real-time service to our neighbor, strengthening our reach and effectiveness as people who inspire and create change. We are more than observers, we comment and then, take action for the cause of Christ. This is how we passionately smash the status quo, removing limitations and making room for remarkable futures. We will more than build a space that makes all this possible; we will build relationships that impact an entire world.

And while all this amazing stuff is happening in the life of Impact, it will also happen for YOU. All that is possible collectively is also possible individually. Possible is for YOU. Remarkable is for YOU. Change Makes It Possible ignites another Impact movement of spiritual empowerment, spirituality and social change – from our babies to our older adults.

Imagine what's possible for your future. Take a chance to dream. Your possibilities are endless. Can you see it?

- 11,000 sq. ft. of safe space
- Afterschool spaces to help with your schoolwork, including tutoring
- Areas to help you start your own businesses
- Exciting outdoor recreation zone, including a climbing wall
- Training for youth in music, creative programming and coding
- Even space for your parents/guardians and other family members

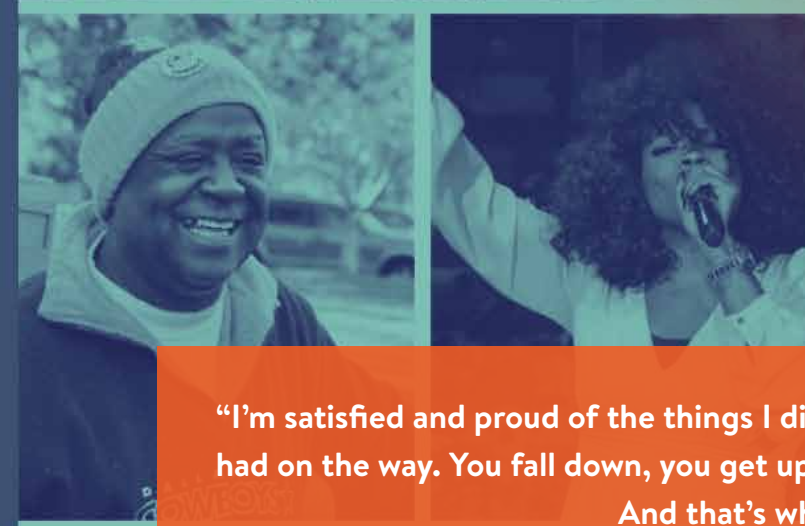

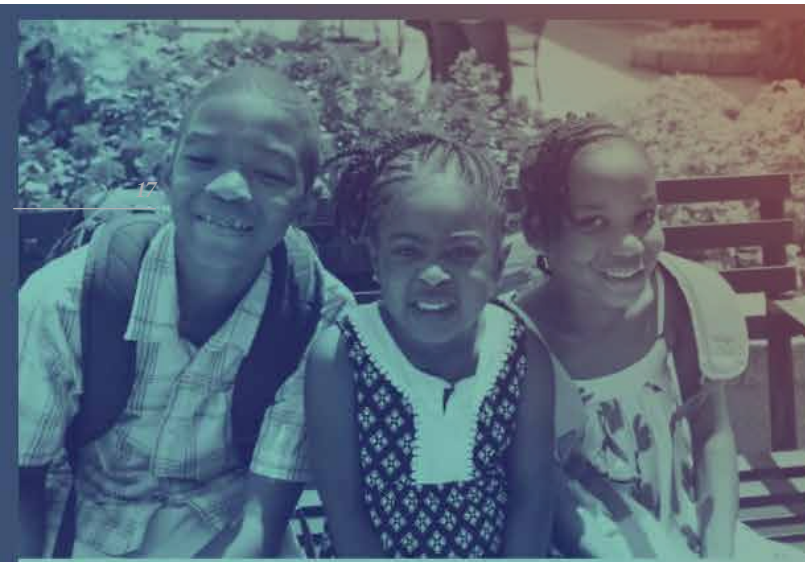

In life, we don't often get a chance to peek at what's to come. Maximum Impact's Change Makes It Possible adventure is one of those moments. You are looking at your future as your faith community positions itself on purpose to provide direct care and programming that will enhance your life and the lives of your middle and high school classmates – today and for generations of tomorrow.

Of the 50,000 sq. ft. that we will develop, 11,000 sq. ft. will be for NxT-G, providing a safe and sacred space filled with amazing spirit, energy, wonderment and innovation. From technology to physical fitness to family enrichment zones, in this space, any one of you will dare to dream of remarkable futures, believing that one day they will become reality for you. Just imagine how this kind of space will broaden what's possible for the many students like you in and around Impact's community whose families today are struggling to provide life's necessities of food, clothing and shelter!

Incredibles, Impact Kidz and Maximum Impact not only receive one of the primary beneficiaries of Change Makes It Possible, you will participate in critical ways. You will have your own version of this adventure's prayer and study guides, along with your own generosity goals and games to help you along your way.

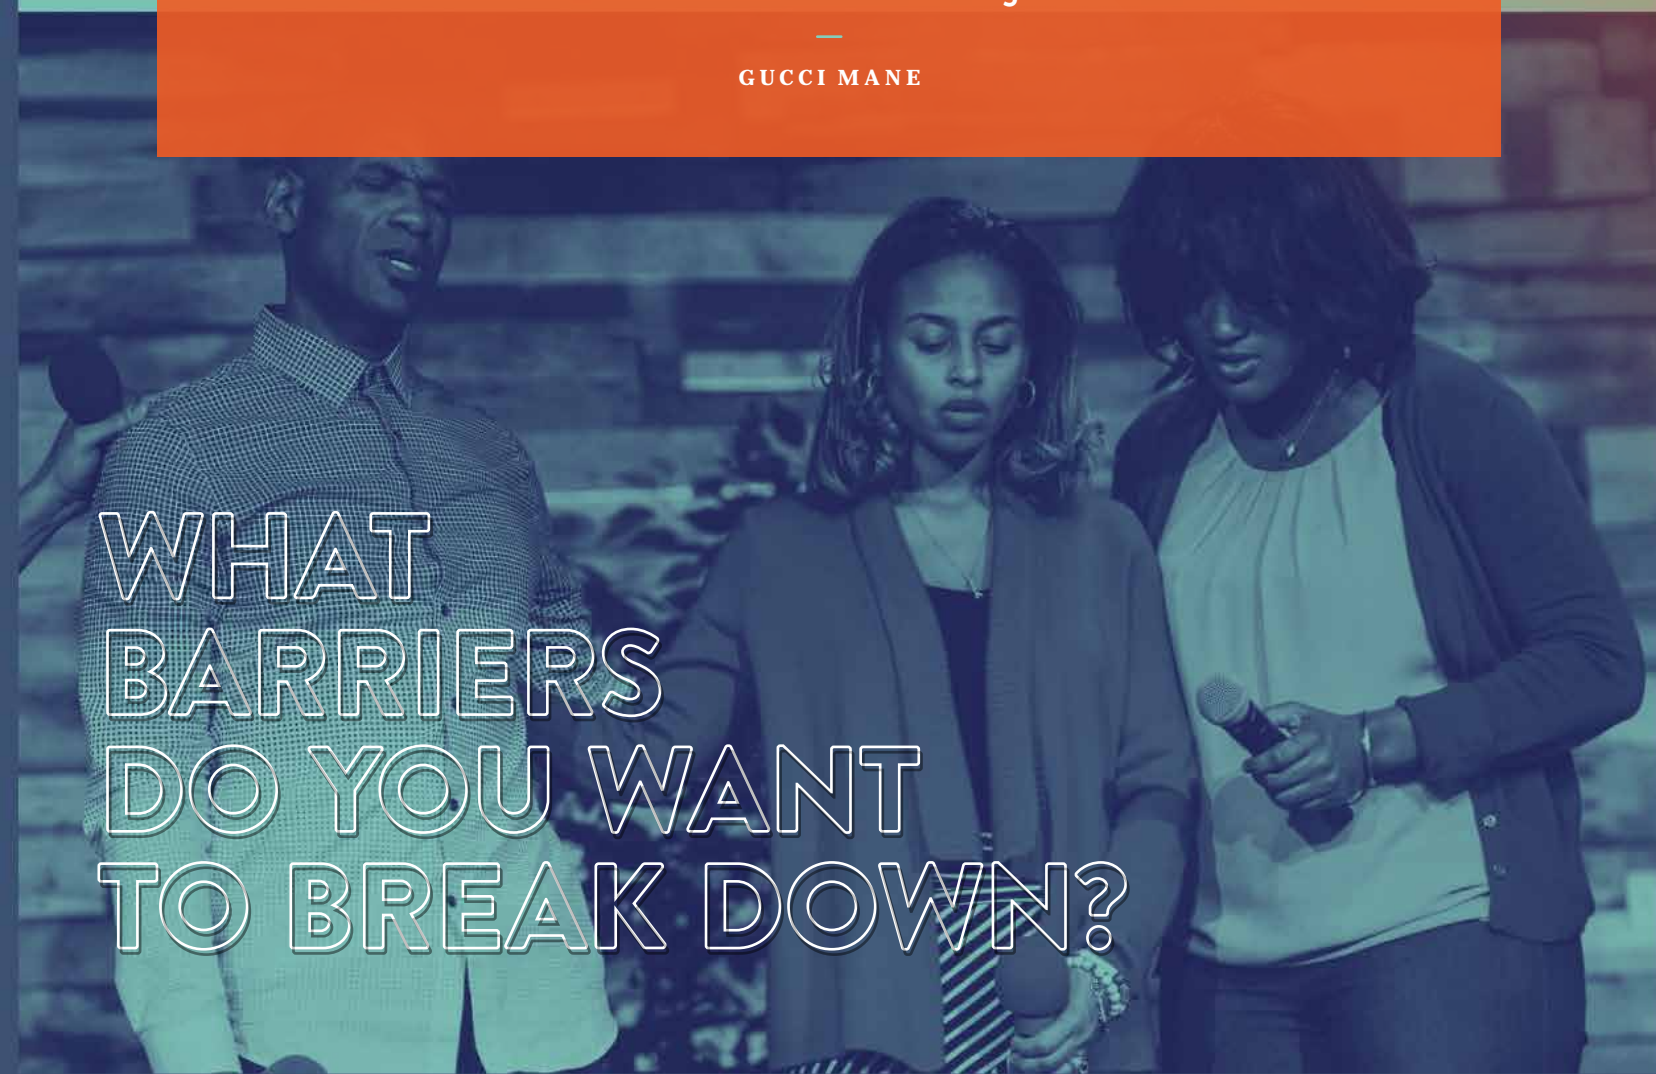

“Take twelve stones from here out of the middle of the Jordan, from the place where the priests’ feet stood,
carry them over with you,

then you shall tell them ...
these stones shall be to the Israelites a memorial forever.”

Why another campaign so soon after the last one?

In our wildest imagination, we never dreamed that God would bless Impact with such amazing growth so soon after moving into Impact on Sylvan. Weekly attendance has increased from approximately 1,400 to 2,300. Since we are serious about redefining the church experience and realizing impact – being a revolution and not an institution – we always want to respond to what God is doing in the lives of God's people. By launching our Change Makes It Possible adventure, we continue to revitalize our local and global communities as we reach every sphere of life with the love of God – today, tomorrow and the future.

Actually, I Share ... We Impact was not our latest campaign. During the summer of 2016, we came together to purchase three vans to transport students to our campus for worship and other community events. In 2015, we had another successful capital campaign for NxT-G. As we continue to be a community that sparks change, shapes culture and carries the Gospel, we will always do church differently. This reality means that we'll probably always be in expansion mode. Always growing is a blessing that can seem risky. Yet it reminds us of the church's beginning in the book of Acts that records how God added daily to their numbers. God is moving in similar ways with Impact Church; we are committed to following wherever God sends us on this exciting adventure.

That's a lot of money.

Yes, the amount is large and challenging. As Impact's leadership team added up the numbers, we all paused at the scale of this project. Yet even more powerful for us is the testimony we have of God always being present and allowing provision for all parts of our journey to date. We are confident that this project is our best and preferred option.

We want you to know that we've completed our research, already investing hundreds of hours exploring options and talking to experts to make sure that we are excellent stewards with both the vision and the provision to achieve it. Time and time again we've witnessed God not only be faithful to us as a community for believing God for what seems impossible, but we have countless stories of how God has provided in amazing ways for everyone who gives to Impact.

I don't have a lot of money to contribute.

Please don't worry about the size of your gift. All financial investments of any size are highly valued by Impact, Pastor Olu, Pastor Candice and all of our leaders. We know that everyone cannot give large amounts of money. Impact started and grew because of amazing visionaries, leaders and generous donors who shared their time, talents and treasure at various levels. We've never asked anyone to give more than what they had available to share – and look at what we've done with God's blessing. We expect Change Makes It Possible to be yet another awesome testimony to the big things God can do with our little. Simply, we just need everyone to be willing to participate.

Also, we are grateful for the increase of attendees and donors to our community who help share the responsibility of investing in our future. We are confident that they recognize the movement of God here and will join those of us who've been here a while on our adventure.

it can change the world. Your voice can change the world.”

12-MONTH PRAYER GUIDE

JANUARY

Theme Purpose

Scripture The Lord said to Abram, “Leave your land, your family, and your father’s household for the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation and will bless you. I will make your name respected, and you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, those who curse you I will curse; all the families of the earth will be blessed because of you.”
–Genesis 12:1-3, CEB

Prayer God, creator of heaven and earth, thank you for also creating me. As your child, I know I am created in your image for a purpose. Help me live out my calling in your name. Help your church live out its calling in your name. When you call, we have to move. Give us courage to move physically, emotionally, spiritually and financially, in your name. Amen.

FEBRUARY

Theme Love

Scripture God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him won’t perish but will have eternal life.
–John 3:16, CEB

Prayer God of love and life, thank you for giving your only Son so that we may have eternal life. Help me to be generous in love. Give me the courage to give to you because you have so generously given to me, in the name of Christ. Amen.

MARCH

Theme Confession

Scripture With what should I approach the Lord and bow down before God on high? Should I come before him with entirely burned offerings, with year-old calves? Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, with many torrents of oil? Should I give my oldest child for my crime; the fruit of my body for the sin of my spirit? He has told you, human one, what is good and what the Lord requires from you: to do justice, embrace faithful love, and walk humbly with your God.
–Micah 6:6-8, CEB

Prayer God of endless love, we confess that we are often swept up in the tide of our generation. We sometimes forget our purpose and are moved more by private ambition than by social justice. We sometimes neglect love and dream more of our own benefits and comfort than of service and sacrifice. We sometimes turn away from our faith and try to speak your name without relinquishing our glories, without nourishing our souls, without relying wholly on your grace. Help us to make room in our hearts and lives for you. Forgive us, revive us, and reshape us in your image. Amen.

12-MONTH PRAYER GUIDE

APRIL

Theme Faith

Scripture Trust in the Lord with all your heart; don’t rely on your own intelligence. Know him in all your paths, and he will keep your ways straight.
–Proverbs 3:5-6, CEB

Prayer Loving God, thank you for your creation. So often, I try to figure everything out on my own, but God, you have all wisdom. Help me have faith that your grace is sufficient. Help me to remember and believe that you are faithful. Help me to walk in faith, not my own limited sight. Amen.

MAY

Theme Simplicity

Scripture Tell people who are rich at this time not to become egotistical and not to place their hope on their finances, which are uncertain. Instead, they need to hope in God, who richly provides everything for our enjoyment. Tell them to do good, to be rich in the good things they do, to be generous, and to share with others. When they do these things, they will save a treasure for themselves that is a good foundation for the future. That way they can take hold of what is truly life.
–1 Timothy 6:17-19, CEB

Prayer Holy God, I thank you for trusting me with your riches and your wealth. I promise daily, to use that which you provide to the Glory of your kingdom and the creation of resources for others to know you. I pray your strength as I refrain from thinking about financial riches, time and talents as my own, and I view them as gifts from on high. God, help me to live with simplicity so that I can honor you with my resources. Amen.

JUNE

Theme Contentment

Scripture Why would people gain the whole world but lose their lives? What will people give in exchange for their lives?
–Matthew 16: 26, CEB

Prayer Lord, help me to be grateful for what I have, to remember that I don’t need most of what I want, and that joy is found in simplicity and generosity. Amen.

Principles for Consideration: The Materialism Antidote

Remove ALL excuses when God calls us to give. The Macedonian churches were in several trials, seasons of anything except abundance. And yet, they gave generously - even beyond their ability. What an example! With the Macedonian churches in mind, examine your own heart. Imagine the Lord inviting you to deeper, and more sacrificial, generosity. How often does your heart initially react by providing God (or others) with all of the reasons why you cannot give at this time? The Macedonian churches actually begged Paul for the opportunity to give, even during a time when they felt they could not. As you think through 2 Corinthians 8:1-9, let the Macedonian churches encourage you. The grace of Jesus (2 Corinthians 8:9) can make our hearts more like theirs. Let's learn together what it means to give sacrificially, regardless of circumstances.

Weekly Treasure Principle

Heaven, not earth is my home. I should live not for the dot, but for the line. Giving is the only antidote to materialism. God prospers me not to raise my standard of living, but to raise my standard of giving.

WEEK 2 : THE MATERIALISM ANTIDOTE

Imprint Group Discussion Questions

Pursue Individuals. Pursue Purpose. Build Environments. Build Relationships.

1. When asked (by Jesus or others) to give sacrificially, have you ever excluded yourself because of your circumstances? How does 2 Corinthians 8 address that?

2. The primary goal of this generosity journey is 100% participation from all persons in the church (regardless of amount). We want everyone within our faith community to lean in on generosity as a principle for life, not just this moment in time. What barriers or excuses might God be asking you to remove so that you can be part of the mission to create a safe sacred space for all within the community and the world?

3. If you woke up tomorrow morning and prayed, "Lord, help me to live for the line instead of the dot today," how would your day be different? (see The Treasure Principle, p. 50)

4. What are some practical things you will do this week to live for the line, not the dot?

(see The Treasure Principle, p. 50)

5. Respond to the following statement: "Nothing makes a journey more difficult than a backpack filled with nice, but not unnecessary things. Pilgrims travel light." What does it mean to be a pilgrim and to travel lightly? What are steps you can take to lighten your load? (see The Treasure Principle, p. 53)

6. Have you ever encountered a person whose possessions "own them"? What did this look like, especially in terms of their energy and attention? (see The Treasure Principle, p. 54)

7. What things would change if God truly got your first, not your last? (see The Treasure Principle, p. 62)

WEEK 2 : THE MATERIALISM ANTIDOTE

8. Take money off the table for a moment. Think of the other resources you have: your home, your clothes, your electronics, your season tickets, etc. Do you honor God with these resources by giving them over to God? Do you use your home as a resource for God? How could you better do that? Do you lend (or give) your extra car to those in need? When you have extra tickets, do you try to sell them, or do you bless a teenager who has wanted to see a performer for her entire life, and may never have the opportunity to go to a concert? Are you honoring the Lord with all that you have?

9. This may be painful, but it will provide evidence. Please pull your last month's bank statement, including all of your debit card transactions. (You do NOT have to show this to anyone.) Get your calculator and take a hard look at where you have placed value. You want to pay attention to one-time payments, items that are not essential for living.

Add up how much you spent on the following:

Entertainment..... $ _____
(cable, concerts, movies, show tickets, etc.)

Personal Beauty..... $ _____
(non-essential products, includes manicures, fill-ins, and pedicures, etc.)

Dining/Eating Out..... $ _____
(restaurants/eateries, fast food, etc.)

Clothing/Shoes..... $ _____
(non-essential for work/life)

Gifts..... $ _____
(for others or self)

Other Discretionary..... $ _____
(other funds spent doing things you like)

GRAND TOTAL..... $ _____

(Considering this amount, how much of your total expenditures helped advance God's work on earth?)

WEEK 3 : ACTIVELY GENEROUS

Sermon Notes

Prayer

Pray this prayer every morning and every night during Week Three.

God, despite my income, despite my current giving, despite my service, I offer to you only a sacrifice that will cost me something to give. I actively determine in my heart and in my soul to be generous with my time, with my talents, with my finances, and with every great gift you have bestowed upon me. I am intentional in my decision and determination to see plagues lifted from society as a result of my commitment to be remarkably generous. This is my eternal prayer. Amen.

WEEK 3 : ACTIVELY GENEROUS

Scriptural Reference

A costly sacrifice

18 That same day Gad came to David and told him, “Go up and build an altar to the Lord on the threshing floor of Araunah from Jebus.” 19 So David went up, following Gad’s instructions, just as the Lord had commanded. 20 Araunah looked up and saw the king and his servants approaching him. Araunah rushed out and bowed low before the king, his nose to the ground. 21 Araunah said, “Why has my master and king come to his servant?” David said, “To buy this threshing floor from you to build an altar to the Lord, so the plague among the people may come to an end.” 22 Then Araunah said to David, “Take it for yourself, and may my master the king do what he thinks is best. Here are oxen for the entirely burned offering, and here are threshing boards and oxen yokes for wood. 23 All this, Your Majesty, Araunah gives to the king.” Then he added, “May the Lord your God respond favorably to you!” 24 “No,” the king said to Araunah. “I will buy them from you at a fair price. I won’t offer up to the Lord my God entirely burned offerings that cost me nothing.” So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. 25 David built an altar there for the Lord and offered entirely burned offerings and well-being sacrifices. The Lord responded to the prayers for the land, and the plague against Israel came to an end.

Principles for Consideration: Actively Generous

As David is building the altar for the Lord, he knows that the sacrifice won't mean anything if it doesn't cost him something. He knows that a costless sacrifice won't honor the Lord. When we give to the Lord, often only we know whether it required faith and is sacrificial. A person can give a very large amount and it not be honoring to God, if it didn't really cost them anything. So let's examine our giving. Is it requiring faith and sacrifice? God wants us to give in a way that changes us, changes communities, and honors God.

Weekly Treasure Principle

My heart always goes where I put God's money.

WEEK 3 : ACTIVELY GENEROUS

Imprint Group Discussion Questions

Pursue Individuals. Pursue Purpose. Build Environments. Build Relationships.

1. Are you currently giving in such a way that is changing you, that is sacrificial and requiring faith? If so, celebrate that work of grace in your heart. If not, what's holding you back?

2. What is one gift you have given that was incredibly fun to give? Why was it such a significant experience for you?

(see The Treasure Principle, p. 39)

3. This week's Treasure Principle reads, "My heart always goes where I put God's money." How has this been true in your life? (see The Treasure Principle, p. 43)

4. Take a look at the giving journey on pages 27-31 of The Treasure Principle. Where would you currently find yourself on this journey? Where might God be challenging you to move?

5. List the financial commitments you currently have, especially those that go beyond a one-time payment, but that have a time duration. Examples would be a home mortgage, a lease agreement, a car loan, a cell phone contract, your child's tuition for school, your own tuition for school, etc.

6. Now list the commitment you are planning to make for More Than Possible (MTP). Where does it fall in the priority of those other commitments? Do you need to change or modify one or more of these other commitments to be able to manage well and complete your MTP commitment? What would that require? Is there a financial commitment you currently have that appears to be prioritized above your ability to make a sacrificial giving commitment?

7. If someone who didn't know you looked at your financial commitments, what would they say you value?

WEEK 3 : ACTIVELY GENEROUS

8. Would the above value statement be true about you? Or is there something that needs to be explained or modified?

9. Choose to make your giving to God the type of priority you want it to be. What will that mean for your MTP commitment?

10. If you keep this commitment over the next two years, what type of spiritual change will that cause in you?

11. How will you leverage this change to influence others such as your children, your co-workers, your friends, your family, and others in your circles of influence?

Committing to Change Makes It Possible is a decision that creates a covenant between us and God as well as with each other. A covenant is a deep, abiding coming together of two or more people for a common goal. The meaning of a covenant is more than a simple agreement; it involves our faith, beliefs, dreams and sacrifices.

We invite you to our Change Makes It Possible Launch (January 29th or February 5th) and Commitment Sundays (March 5th or 12th) as we celebrate reaching beyond different to remarkable – connecting, pursuing and building more and more room for ALL of God's people.
